

Hump Express — August 9, 1945

Selected wartime newspaper item identifying the 1340th Base Unit at Kunming; Charles is not named.

Unit location in the newspaper

Behemoth 'Godown' Goes Up in China

1340 BU, Kunming — The newspaper reports a new warehouse at this base. This item identifies the unit's location in August 1945; it does not establish Charles Ertter's presence there.

Published text

1340 BU, Kunming - "Handmade in China" might well be a fitting caption for the mammoth warehouse, newest addition to this base, which went into operation recently.

With no walls, the open-air building provides a maximum of storage space for trucks operating for the many agencies it services. It also includes two offices for warehouse personnel.

Source and provenance

Hump Express, India-China Division newspaper, August 9, 1945, Behemoth Godown Goes Up in China.

Wartime text reproduced at https://www.cbi-theater.com/hump_express/hump080945.html. Text checked September 17, 2026. This is a reflowed excerpt, not a facsimile of the newspaper.